Community-Powered Approaches to Impacting Maternal Health

Ana I'l Brown-Cohen, MPH is the Director of Health Programs at Colorado Access, a non-profit health plan specializing in the integrated management of populations enrolled in public insurance.

Ms. Brown-Cohen leads the operationalization of Colorado Access' health strategy through the design and implementation of population-level interventions for Medicaid and CHP+ members.

This work is instrumental in ensuring delivery of whole person care and specifically, that the right intervention is delivered to the right population, at the right time.

Ms. Brown-Cohen received her Master's degree from the University of Colorado's School of Public Health. Prior to coming to Colorado Access.

Ms. Brown-Cohen previously worked at Centura Health, one of Colorado's largest healthcare systems, where she led a Medicare eligibility and enrollment team that served the Denver Metro Area.

She also has experience working in state corrections, mental health, and recovery from substance use.
