Ancestral Innovations at the Crossroads of Providing Maternal Health Care

Nicolle L. Gonzales received her Bachelor's of Nursing and her Masters of Nurse-Midwifery at the University of New Mexico. She is a member of the American College of Nurse Midwives and is certified with the American Midwifery Certification Board.

She has over 12 years' experience as a nurse and has worked as a Nurse-Midwife doing full-scope midwifery for the last 10 years.

Through the years, she has worked on several community projects around birth equity and she has served as the founding board president and vice board president of two birth centers in NM.

In addition to attending births, Nicolle was a contributing author to the "American Indian Health and Nursing" in 2015 and is a contributing writer for the Indigenous Goddess Gang online magazine, where she discusses indigenous birth, midwifery, ceremony, reproductive justice, and indigenous feminism.
